

WHO WE ARE

The Naming Project is a faith-based youth group serving young people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. It is a space in which youth can comfortably discuss spirituality and who they understand themselves to be with regard to their own faith, sexual orientation and/or gender identity.

The Naming Project is a non-profit organization that reaches out to youth across the United States through our various programs, including:

- E-mail check-ins and resources for both youth and parents
- Workshops and conversations for youth, schools, communities and churches,
- A five-day summer camp!

Is The Naming Project for you?

You tell us! Are you...

- ...14-18 years old or have you completed 8th through 12th grades?
- ...Of any sexual orientation, gender identity or expression?
- ...Interested in discussing and understanding your own sexuality and gender identity in terms of your spiritual journey?
- ...Prepared to spend five days with other teen campers and supportive staff?
- ...Eager to canoe, swim, hike, sing, and do arts and crafts?

Then join us July 29-Aug 3, 2012 at summer camp!

The Naming Project

This summer's theme is "God Is Near." We'll spend the week exploring our relationship with God and with our neighbor.

Youth can expect to be actively involved in exploring scriptural themes and how they relate to life experiences.

There will be conversation with the staff, as well as campfires, crafts, swimming, games, and summer camp fun in the beauty of God's creation!
